RE: Recommendation for Angela Smith

I am happy to recommend Ms. Angela Smith, who was a student in my Literature 223 (Twentieth Century American Literature) Winter Quarter 2000 and received a 3.9 in that course.

Ms. Smith had a very high level of motivation and she made excellent contributions to the class. In classroom activities, Ms. Smith was an enthusiastic participant and interacted well with other students. Ms. Smith was among the leaders in the class. Her comments were always useful and non-threatening and showed her desire to help others learn as well.

She clearly was very interested in the course material and always had done a close and careful reading of the literature. Her writing demonstrated a precision and flexibility with language. Her essay tests were consistently clear and well developed and reflected her active interest in integrating the reading with her learning in other courses.

Ms. Smith was consistently pleasant and cooperative. I predict that she will be successful in her continued academic and professional career.

Re: Outstanding Customer Service

Dear Angela,

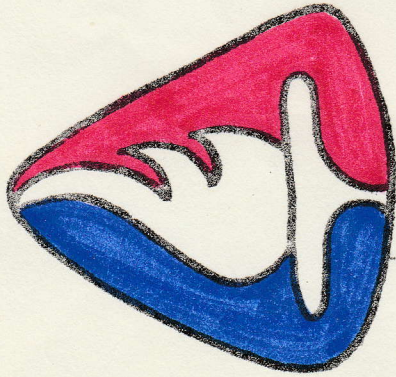

A belated but heartfelt note to thank you for straightening out all our online banking difficulties. Before we found our way into your capable hands, we had squandered countless hours on the phone explaining our problems to service representatives who really didn't understand Key Bank's online product or how to help us. You, on the other hand, grasped the problem immediately and took decisive action to put everything right. I especially appreciated your regular phone calls to keep us up-to-date on your successful efforts to put everything straight. You are the consummate professional!

Again, thank you for your stellar customer service.

Sincerely,

WHAT HAPPENED WITH PCS?

Provo Canyon School threatened to sue my family for breach of contract for removing me/rescuing me from Provo Canyon School where there was more time and an early termination clause. My family threatened to counter-sue for the abuse. Both sides were effectively dropped and I was still a minor at the time.
