

Subject: Post My Feedback

From: Jake Drozek <happyhuffs1994@gmail.com>

Date: 9/3/2022, 6:26 PM

To: rev@cope.church

> My name is Jacob drozek and I went to Discovery School back in 2009.
> The intensity which staff approached us with anger hostility disguised > as them trying to help us. I saw multiple students screamed out to the > point they were mentally broken down forced to push wheelbarrows > so > heavy at the bottoms were busting out while being screamed at the > entire time. Anytime I thought I was doing better I was reminded that > I was faking and I had to be turned out the group and do a work > project. When my friend Lacey committed suicide. We were forced on > the > spot to deal with it and if we couldn't come up with a reason to why > we were sad we were turned out of the group. This is just one of many > instances that I witnessed and have experience. I can think of > multiple staff who were forced by other staff to scream at students I > saw staff make themselves angry so they could be angry with us. The > simple fact is dogs were treated better than us. They were multiple > times where I reached out to my parents and my letters were taken.
> And
> just the fact that we weren't allowed to relax.