

A Sermon on Learning

Sermon by Rev. Minister Angela Smith of COPE for August 14th, 2022 (and beyond)

This sermon is in dialogue format in hopes to inform, enlighten, and entertain without offending anyone who doesn't get it.

DIALOGUE

Inquirer: Why don't you learn math?

Ignorant Party: Math is stupid. I've got better things to do.

Inquirer: Why don't you learn history?

Ignorant Party: Forget the past, the future is all that matters. It is all misinformation, half-truths, and outright propaganda anyway. Save the brainwashing for someone else.

Inquirer: Have you considered using the scientific method to test the veracity of any claims made so you can determine fact from fiction?

Ignorant Party: My gut works just fine, thanks. I trust my gut.

Inquirer: Do you at least know the law so you can stay out of harm's way or seek redress if needed?

Ignorant Party: I plead the 5th and that's all I need to know to stay out of trouble. And, I'd like to run the government. The first thing I'd do is abolish school. I'm going to change things.

Inquirer: Don't you think you should know something well before deciding it's worthless?

Ignorant Party: Sounds like a huge waste of time.

Inquirer: Shikata ga nai!
