

A Sermon on Questions

Sermon by Rev. Minister Angela Smith of COPE for September 19th, 2021 (and beyond)

My PapaSam (maternal grandfather) once responded to my asking, “Do you love me?” with “If you have to ask, you’ll never know.” I believe his love was self-evident and he also expressly told me he loved me at times I didn’t ask. I’m almost certain I only asked that once and then meditated on it. PapaSam’s love was a self-evident truth.

That being said, the remainder of this sermon is going to be about how unasked and/or unanswered questions are a result at times of the stupidity or laziness of the questioner rather than the lack of accessibility or availability of the answers they claim to seek while blaming everyone around them for their own ignorance for which they alone appear to be responsible in full context. The rest is in dialogue format to illustrate the points made in this paragraph.

DIALOGUE #1

Questioner: What is the CIA hiding?

Respondent: Have you visited www.cia.gov and read every page of the site including the archive documents on all declassified materials? What specific information do you want access to that you believe should be available to you at this time?

Questioner: I specifically want to know about child trafficking and alien abduction and the CIA’s involvement in both.

Respondent: Have you tried searching the FBI archives? See: <https://www.archives.gov/research/foia/digitized-fbi-files> or <https://vault.fbi.gov/cointel-pro> And, with your specific categories, I'd suggest <https://vault.fbi.gov/unexplained-phenomenon> and run searches on the FBI and/or CIA sites for keywords on info you are seeking.

Questioner: Why should I trust the government?

Respondent: You began by asking what the CIA and/or government are hiding. Arguably they are the only ones who would know. If interested in collecting or reviewing declassified data they've made available even if some of it has been redacted or blacked out, that’s where to find it.

Questioner: You didn’t answer my question. Why should I trust the government?

Respondent: I feel like you think as a “straw man” and that's all you got going on. You approached me with a question about what the CIA is hiding. I told you where to find what they make available and asked for clarification, which you provided. Are you a child trafficker who brainwashes your victims into believing they were abducted by aliens or some other fantasy? Do you traumatize them in such a manner that they no longer recognize your humanity and remember all of it as an alien experience? Is that why you are concerned? Do you want to know if the government is on to you?

Questioner: I do not have to answer your questions and I don't trust you as a source. I'm not the problem here, it is the CIA and FBI.

Respondent: What evidence do you have that the CIA and/or FBI is involved with child trafficking and/or co-conspiring with extraterrestrials to abduct people? I can't say what the CIA is involved in beyond what they make available to the public. I can say that I've been of help to the FBI at times in their investigations and prosecutions of child traffickers. And, I can attest to the fact that some victims of serious childhood trauma dehumanize the criminals who harmed them which can present difficulty with credibility because of the belief the criminals were alien or monsters of some sort rather than humans with criminal minds.

Questioner: What if I was brainwashed by aliens and that turned me into a monster or made me their slave?

Respondent: Alien or not, Patty Hearst was abducted and unduly influenced/brainwashed, but still went to prison for 3 years.

Questioner: I don't trust the government. Patty Hearst was innocent. She didn't deserve that. I need to know everything they have on child trafficking and alien abduction.

Respondent: Patty Hearst wasn't a child trafficker. Her deal was armed robbery of some sort if I recall correctly. There's video evidence of it. Everyone agrees she was suffering Stockholm Syndrome, unduly influenced, and/or brainwashed at the time which is why her charges were mitigated as was her sentence. Maybe if you turn yourself in and tell the FBI everything you know, any charges against you will be mitigated or you might even get an immunity deal.

Questioner: Are you one of them?

DIALOGUE #2

Questioner: Why didn't you tell me before I signed?

Respondent: Everything was in the written agreement. Did you read it before signing?

Questioner: I have a right to know.

Respondent: Yes and all the information was made available and accessible to you. Did you not understand the written agreement?

Questioner: Stop changing the subject. This is about you and my right to informed consent.

Respondent: What is it you feel wasn't disclosed that should have been disclosed before you signed?

Questioner: That my privacy rights were waived because electronic communications are not protected by HIPAA due to the vulnerabilities associated with online communication.

Respondent: That was in the written agreement you signed. You had to initial that part separately. And, you did so. I thought you were acting in good faith having read and understood the written agreement before signing it. I assumed you to be competent and acting in good faith.

Questioner: I do not appreciate your insinuating I'm the one who acted in bad faith or that I'm incompetent. Both are insulting. What gives you the right to violate my privacy?

Respondent: You did when you initialed that part of the written agreement you signed.

Questioner: How do I revoke my consent? Do I sue for breach or what? I'm going to contact a consumer advocate.

END DIALOGUE

It is my hope Exodus 20:16 (KJV) along with the stated primary principle on which COPE (including HEAL Mission) stands is understood clearly and completely. Honesty, including intellectual honesty, is required for my church and the HEAL Mission to be of any assistance to anyone who requests or needs it. In the event there is classified government documents, that only those with specific government clearance have access to at this time, are what you want where you don't have said clearance, you are delusional to believe you will find out by making any inquiries about it before said documents are declassified. And, if you theorize based on some of the declassified stuff, I've got one for you on alien abduction.

All alien abduction stuff is about foreign (human) spies/threats and has nothing to do with extraterrestrials. It likely started with the Nazis/Krauts and continues to be code to pass intelligence on the sly between those who need to know and also know the code. It may have been exacerbated or reinforced as a result of the CIA's experiments or involvement in experiments with hallucinogenic substances as "truth serums" or the like in which one of those unwitting CIA agents that was subject of such an experiment started talking about alien invasions which while under the influence became fantastical in any documentation of it. In addition, Hitler was unduly influenced by a Hindu Priestess named Savitri Devi as were all the Nazis. And, the Hindus have in their myths stories about flying saucers or chariots called Vimana. "V" doesn't just stand for "Visitors". The song "99 Luftballons" by NENA is actually about that and makes fun of it. But, that's just my theory. "The Rocky Horror Picture Show" is also somewhat about that and making fun of it too. What's most hilarious about that is the sly nod with Dr. Scott having a German accent, but being supposedly one of the good guys who is also brainwashed by the Transvestite Aliens from the planet Transsexual Transylvania I believe. He does not weep for his nephew who was murdered and became the main course at dinner. All of that speaks to the fact that when great wealth passes from generation to generation in the same family, where the younger generations never had to be responsible or work for anything and just experienced pleasure without paying their dues, it results in everyone wanting that lifestyle. Then, that's when socialists start promising it to everyone while planning to kill off or let large numbers of the population die from starvation+ who are too aware of the possibility such a lifestyle exists or is attainable, while their spoiled rotten children go out and tell everyone it is possible while getting some to join them in their efforts (cults/activist storefronts) to destroy civilization which results in those who care about civilization getting more militaristic in response. Sound familiar?

As far as child traffickers, even most convicts hate them. I'd even be willing to say all convicts who would never victimize a child, hate anyone who would and/or does victimize children. The rest of society is in accord with the convicts who would never victimize a child. So, those who would and/or do victimize children could all starve to death and no one would care in the least. Many would be relieved to get the news they died of any cause.

The issue remains with people not graduating from nursery rhymes to actual Grimm Brothers Fairytales and the like. There are multiple scenarios in which a family makes a deal to sell or otherwise part with one of their children for some benefit to the family. Often the family claims they didn't think the evil person who made them an offer to take their child was serious at the time the deal was made. They believed, like with Rapunzel, that even if true, the child would benefit from the deal more so than not. And, they blame Rapunzel because but for the pregnancy cravings, the deal would not have happened in the first place. So, I've been known to refer to such people as Nursery Rhyme Bitches because they haven't even graduated to fairytales in their understanding of the world around them, including risks, benefits, and the importance of understanding any agreements before parting with precious time, money, or people.

If you are offended, you can't handle the truth. And, so this is likely not the church for you. But, you might be a candidate for the mission. Most everyone who reads this will feel better and understood. If you feel worse and irritable, please know your feedback is always welcome too.
