

BRIEF ADDENDUM:

Patti Bonchek initiated contact with the HEAL Mission on November 21st, 2019. This is the first I learned of Bonchek by name and later learned she was responsible for using pseudonyms and a variety of social media handles to contact other people as well as myself if she is also Turtle Jewelry on Facebook and a few others on Twitter. Turtle Jewelry had been trolling me and Sean Stone on Facebook as early as November, 2017 (before Sacred Breath Academy even existed and after Stone had been in touch with Bonchek who claims to have met him for lunch). I had seen her Youtube video, but did not know who was responsible for it until Bonchek began e-mailing me as Professor Grace (her Youtube handle or one of them is Professor Grace). See <https://www.heal-online.org/fakesandmore.pdf> According to Danielle “Kaya” Leigh of Sacred Breath Academy, Bonchek has used various accounts and online handles to contact her and Sean Stone. I have many reasons and multiple complaints on Sacred Breath Academy from people other than Bonchek and concerns have been validated by various law enforcement and regulatory bodies in regards to the fraud that is Sacred Breath Academy.

Here is the November 21, 2019 initial message from Bonchek to the HEAL Mission of COPE:

Here is my initial reply to that message:

Dear Patti,

Thank you for contacting HEAL! I'm sorry to hear but not surprised you've had an issue with Sacred Breath Academy. I've received your voice-mail and will call if you would like to talk or need support. There are a few great ways you can take action! Let us know if you are interested in any of the following or need assistance:

1. If a victim of crimes, including fraud, please report those to law enforcement. Since Sacred Breath Academy is mobile and unlicensed, it is difficult to pinpoint their location. Other victims have e-mailed HEAL showing it is headquartered in Santa Monica, CA. But, the listing for Kaya/Sacred Breath Academy through the IBF website says they are located in Clearview, TX. So, the best option may be to report fraud to the FTC or your home state's attorney general (see #2) where you can detail everything and let them figure out what laws have been violated. Such could result in restitution for you and even criminal charges. The link to report it to the FTC is <https://www.ftc.gov/news-events/media-resources/identity-theft-and-data-security/filing-complaint> and to submit an FBI tip, do that here: <https://www.fbi.gov/tips>
2. If for any reason it is too late for you to file criminal charges with local law enforcement or they are unable to investigate due to lack of remaining evidence, you may want to file a consumer complaint with your home state's attorney general. Your home state is where you live now and your current state of residence. So, if you visit <http://www.heal-online.org/report.htm> and find your home state's header, the easy online form to file a consumer complaint with your home state's attorney general is linked there. If you file a complaint with the attorney general, please send us a copy if we have your consent to publish it as part of our public information campaign.
3. If you are looking to sue the program, you can find legal resources and information at <http://www.heal-online.org/legal.htm> and <http://www.heal-online.org/legalarguments.htm>. You will need to contact an attorney if planning to sue. However, we believe you'd get more out of filing a consumer complaint unless willing to pay the retainer to go to trial rather than having to settle out of court as a result of a contingency agreement.
4. If interested in submitting a statement about your experiences at Sacred Breath Academy for publication on the HEAL site, please complete, print, sign, date, and return the attached declaration form with your statement and we'll add it to the public information on Sacred Breath Academy. You can return by post, scanned e-mail attachment, or fax.

There may be more ways for you to take action. Let us know what you are interested in above or what you'd like to do. Thank you for sending us the staff info and we'll update and let you know once the update is made!

In Solidarity.

Angela thank you very much for the email and options. I have a unique story that would be too difficult to explain in email but I'd like to Express my appreciation for your work on this I could not have figured this out without the document you shared on the internet. God bless You !!! Please know that I exposed Sacred Breath Academy and Kaya Liar Loser Woman Kaya Leigh/The Azures= on the American government's VOA , voices of America You Tube Channel, repeatedly, yesterday.

Angela Happy Thanksgiving.

Sean Stone, Filmmaker Oliver Stone's son, is a HUGE promoter, advocate, advertiser = of and for Sacred Breath Academy and Kaya Leigh which makes him a Cult Criminal too.

What can we do about this? I thought Sean would stop posting pictures with her after I disclosed the Azure Cult recently, but he did not.

What is HEAL willing to do to expose the Truth about Kaya Azure and Sean Stone they are Fraudulent Liars, cult yoga parasites, and worse, as you know, and very dangerous to the Planet?

By law they must be reported, can HEAL report them please, today, look at Sean Stone's Facebook, or Instagram

So, you see Patti called Sacred Breath Academy a bunch of parasites. I did not call anyone a parasite, but do recognize Sacred Breath Academy as a scam and cult which is why it is on the watch-list that is part of the consumer advocacy arm of the HEAL Mission that's been in existence since 2002.

Saint Jude (Angela):

Hello again. Hope I am not bothering you with my emails. I had another thought today, and you clearly are intelligent and know the law, better than me no doubt because I had No clue what a 51/50 was when I lived in California. We actually left last Spring because it was not a good environment for us any longer and I have school age sons still. So I uttered something to my son one day in my frustration- because I was stressed my 1 son was kinda purposeless and the other playing way to many video games- so I said, in my own house "I'm gonna kill you" and a nasty neighbor heard me - the houses are SO close to each other in So Cal - so a neighbor reported me to the Carlsbad Police- for that statement- claiming I was abusive -and the next morning- 5 police officers barged into my house and violently arrested me - I was incarcerated for 4 days. I trusted the Police officers that morning when they rang my doorbell - and opened the door - they tricked me and Manipulated the arrest - it was so so so traumatic St Jude. The handcuffs ripped and scarred my arms for life.To cope I fasted while I was in jail. Anyway, how can a good woman, teacher, caring mother and Sociology Professor like myself get arrested for innocent Speech and Venting at a lazy teenager - meanwhile -- Kaya Danielle Leigh is free to prey on whomever she wants. It doesn't make sense. I wonder your thoughts or if you know anyone that is strong enough to report Kaya Danielle Leigh Azure to the Santa Monica Police

I would probably really help get her "off the streets" and then maybe Sean will see more clearly and come to your HEAL Organization it looks fantastic and God Bless you for Healing so many people you truly Are a Saint.

Thank you,

Patti is fine for me I'm no longer a Professor

Sean Stone may or may not recall but when my Twitter was compromised, someone kept referring to me as Saint Jude in DM's with Sean. I said to stop referring to me as Saint Jude and I am not Saint Jude and that is not my name. My name is Angela Smith. I changed my password and that seemed to resolve the issue on Twitter. But, at the time I had a keystroke virus, which is explained with sources cited at <https://www.cope.church/conspiracy.pdf>.

Angela, I'm okay today my husband got me through it - again - it's like the 11th time I've almost committed suicide since I met Sean in 2017. I know I told you that I don't know Sean or his father but that i highly respect their works for Humanity which is true I know NOTHING about the Stone's and never actually cared to know about their personal lives but I did actually meet him just 1 time in February 2017 briefly I asked to meet with him after I learned from his great Buzzsaw stuff I learned a lot there and I wanted to write a book after I stopped teaching and simply wished to share ideas with him and I did write 2 books after that in 2017 but they weren't publishable ya know and so he never wanted to talk to me after that lunch meeting which I had to drive to my husband knows i don't like driving especially on the 405 in California so he told me to ask Sean if he'd meet me in Newport beach instead of Santa Monica where HE lives but he said NO and i ended up paying for the lunch because maybe he was unemployed and couldn't afford it and i didn't even want lunch i am not a big lunch girl but he said to meet at 2pm at an Italian restaurant that I can't remember name but the food sucked and I had to get a babysitter for my kids to get picked up from school because my husband was traveling for work he travels a lot and all of a sudden it was 5pm and I hadn't even looked at my phone because I had many subjects to cover and I was like holy shit I gotta go and Sean was in the bathroom for like the 4th time it was a little peculiar but I paid the tab and then got outta there and the traffic of course was horrible but I don't think he liked me very much because he ignored me after that meeting which is fine you know I'm happily married and totally content but maybe he is gay I don't know but every so often the world and Humanity just take me to the Brink and last night I just had another tough night i don't know what i would do without my husband he is Jewish and I think Jews are just stronger in many ways and not as sensitive I am SO so so sensitive but didn't want you to worry because you are IN the business of Healing and I hope I didn't worry you in any way. Thanks so much for all you do, Patti

Below is the first one where she is openly e-mailing me, Sacred Breath Academy, and supposedly Sean Stone at an e-mail address I didn't recognize to be his while understanding Jeff Bonchek's gmail was likely an account set-up and solely used by Patti since she initiated contact with HEAL Mission using that one and later disclosed she and Jeff were divorced/separated.

So, upon receiving that message I thought finally the culprit is identified or at least the one that was likely Turtle Jewelry or harassing/contacting both me and Sean Stone since at least November, 2017.

This one is too long to screenshot, but is one of my replies to Bonchek I feel should be included:

“On 12/2/2019 4:47 PM, Angela at HEAL wrote:

Dear Patti,

I haven't heard again from you since sending the e-mails last night. I've been hacked, spoofed, trolled, and harassed off and on for some time with those doing the harassment and trespass using pseudonyms and varying usernames and handles. It got so bad on Facebook that I had to delete my account and reported the issue to the FCC and the WA State Attorney General. Changing my password on Twitter seemed to help with that one. But, people have been impersonating celebrities including Bonnie Tyler, Jackson Browne, and others to harass me when not using seemingly random handles online like Turtle Jewelry on Facebook or @CatpowerNow on Twitter. @CatpowerNow hasn't done anything overtly, I just believe they use other accounts to harass and follow with that one. That's because that one follows me, Sean Stone, and Alex Wraith and I was trying to narrow down suspects while understanding the type of work I do and that law enforcement may be right that there are too many for an investigation where I've not been physically harmed nor suffered any significant financial loss that I can attribute to a specific incident.

Since some of it was targeting Sean Stone as well as myself, I tried to warn him as well as get his assistance in helping to identify the perpetrator(s). I see in your e-mails to Sacred Breath Academy that you and your husband are known as Jeffrey and Patti Bonchek and/or Alan and Susie McBonchek. So, similar to Sacred Breath Academy in using pseudonyms. And, when I go undercover for investigative reporting for our consumer information campaigns, sometimes I too use a pseudonym. So, that doesn't definitively prove illegality.

But, you referenced 51/50 and seemed to know private details about my work as an author that very few people would know and no one would know unless I told them or they hacked my system. And, you identified yourself as a "white hat" which is defined online as an "ethical computer hacker". You then called me St. Jude after I expressly said I preferred not to be called St. Jude even in jest. And, the hackers had been calling me St. Jude repeatedly so to me it suggested you might be the hacker or one of those hacking my system. I found that upsetting given everything else that transpired via e-mail over the last few days, but, also hopeful because maybe I finally get to identify one of the people harassing me definitively.

I don't know all the conversations you've had with Sean Stone nor Sacred Breath Academy. It seems to me if you are living with trauma that the way Danielle/Kaya replied to you exacerbated or escalated tensions which proves she is unqualified. People qualified to provide support or healing to victims of trauma are trained in deescalation techniques. And, she clearly is unprofessional and doesn't know the first thing about deescalation techniques or how to help people with trauma.

Also, Sean Stone is a co-dependent who lies or deceives SBA out of fear, that's my opinion. He and I were the only parties to our hearing in the courtroom when the hearing took place. Later he says in his video about his "stalker" that I must be violent and a threat to him and SBA if the judge granted the order. That's a misunderstanding of what it takes to get one. In California, you only have to be annoying and whomever you are contacting has to say it's annoying them and they told you to stop and you didn't so now they want to make it official. And, the judge ruled that a single e-mail I wrote to Danielle/Kaya/SBA was annoying because of a single sentence in that message. The rest of all communications were permitted, but, not considered. The only question the judge had to answer effectively is whether or not I was annoying and whether or not it had been communicated to me to stop. I conceded that message was annoying and didn't yet have the reply she sent threatening me the night before the hearing because I didn't realize I could use the computers at the hotel to check e-mail even though I didn't bring a laptop/notebook.

So, I don't know how much SBA is spoken to you about me, clearly some. And, I don't know if any of the things that made you a suspect for me were things communicated to you by SBA that you then parroted back to me in some way. So, I'm still unclear on a few things, but, feel I've been harassed to an extent by you and SBA at this point. So, if you are innocent, hopefully your efforts help expose SBA and if you are guilty, then, you've done a lot of harm to a lot of people doing good work just like SBA.

But, I do find it strange that you don't answer my questions. That's usually a red flag for me. You contradict yourself on the age of your children. And, if you've been married since you were 15 years old, I'm concerned about you and wonder if you were raised in a cult and that's why you are triggered by Sean's involvement with SBA because you understand the damage they can do to the psyche.

I think SBA is a Nazi cult for many reasons. They promote many Nazi ideas/ideals. They blame people for poor health instead of looking at environmental factors and pre-existing conditions or injuries. They use controlling language and try to tell other people who they are and demand that their view of who everyone else is is the true reality while denying that other people have legitimate concerns and perspectives who are way smarter, more learned, and more skilled than they will ever be if they plan to learn everything through Osmosis downloads from the fascist Nazi Akashic Chronicles where misguided and confused people let go of themselves and download or embrace historical figures like Hitler, Napoleon, and Maria Osric to promote the idea that less privileged people choose that lifestyle and are failures who can be used or killed at will and may be fun to experiment on while waiting for the fourth Reich to be firmly established. Not on my watch. And, I believe Sean Stone knows or would know and be able to identify all of this too if he hadn't been brainwashed or unduly influenced by the cult.

So, this is just my perspective and I'm willing to answer questions. I'd ask before you send anymore e-mails that you think about the audience and what you wish to communicate. As a sociology professor, I'd expect you know how to communicate clearly and that whatever the "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy" repeats like in "The Shining" isn't helpful for clear communication. But, reminded me of one of my favorite books/films, so, not too big a bother.

I'd like you to let me know if you are Turtle Jewelry or @CatpowerNow and if you've experienced any hacking or interference on your system that you believe may be attributable to Sacred Breath Academy. Their site is marked unsafe and I believe it may contain malware that allows them to hack people who visit. That is one thing that may explain how they know what anyone is saying relatively privately via e-mail even if gained through unauthorized access. But, if you are involved with them too, then, I really hope law enforcement can find out even though it's been from their perspective a waste of time and something we could all just block, report to hosts/ISPs, or ignore like they do when it's more annoying than causing significant harm which is why in such cases they suggest a restraining order to make it official and then that can be enforced or not. Deputy Sadro with the Snohomish County Sheriff's Office suggested I get a restraining order against SBA in May, 2019. I didn't because I tried to work things out amicably without taking it that far and I was still trying to protect the Stone family to an extent too.

I'd like to believe we're on the same side but don't even know if I know anyone's real names except my own and Sean Stone's. But, I don't like being associated with SBA nor called a whore. And, I don't lie for cash so I'm not a whore. I do agree that anyone who deceives for vice including greed is a whore. And, I stretch and sometimes in different ways called different things depending on culture, but, it's all stretching and animals do it too. So, not something that requires a lot of talent, but, something people stuck mentally in pre-school age develop because "it was fun doing gymnastics and stretching and cartwheels and somersaults as small children and if we pretend that it's super special maybe we can do that forever and get paid for it even though we're not talented enough to make the Olympics by a long-shot." And, those people don't even understand half the time that they need to be at least licensed to operate to show good faith and assure the public they operate above board and accept minimum regulatory standards for their industry. So, whether that means the people running Sacred Breath Academy are developmentally disabled and don't understand you need to study to learn (actually read books and build your knowledge-base over time through devoted study, fact-checking, and cross-referencing) and be licensed to practice or just vicious deceiving malignant narcissistic criminals of the Leopold and Loeb variety, is hard to tell. But, based on the abusive responses we've both received and the unprofessional conduct of SBA, I'm guessing the latter.

All My Best,

Angela Smith

WOW!!! Angela you are an incredibly well researched young lady!!!! And again - your writing skills are "off the charts" == Thank you so much for sharing tonight. My husband actually read part of your previous email to me when we were having some dinner together tonight - and then my husband Jeffrey just is so taxed - he is SO taxed and tired of it all and my high energy and passion are wearing on him especially since SBA/Kaya Leigh -severely Harassed/Bullied/Attacked == me and My Beautiful family last night - They Cyber Attacked Me - Angela - and YOU Angela clearly have SO much energy and passion and Truth and Love and Heart and genuine Care for Sean Stone. Now I get it !!!! I am so happy. But that's when my Jeffrey asked to be taken off this email exchange, at dinner tonight. He is tired of The Human War That's Going On - yet his Wife - ME Prof Grace or Patti - won't EVER stop fighting and working to Serve and Heal and Grow and Love - like YOU Angela Smith -- and Sean and I support your amazing research and wisdom. I Love how much you love and care for Sean so Purely. Very Sweet Angela Smith...

The SBA "Not Sacred Anything-ers" Are stupid, satanic, parasitic, ugly, losers,!!!

Well I am loving learning tonight there's an Angela Smith out there that knows what the F is going ON and has been DOING HER BEST to do SOMETHING about it. Okay okay okay Angela do you like the Carpenters ??? How about this one for you and Sean Tonight (Prof Grace's fav: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=teBV0EoJJY8>)

Angela - YOU started the original email - last night - to the following: 1. me, 2. Sean Stone, 3. oursacredbreath, and 4. my husband. My husband is/was upset by your roller coaster emotions and asked to be taken off - although - I am putting him back on this email - he must know even though he's busy with his work and does NOT appreciate irrational women like you or Kaya Danielle Azure. Your inconsistency with your emotions is traumatic and alarming Angela - for the record - and that could be why Sean and SBA were forced to get the restraining order. Go inward today and think long and hard about what I just explained to you - Angela Smith. I am trying to help you but you are abusing ALL of our emails - again - you are incredibly self-absorbed and obsessed with Sean Stone - therefore - not of rational mind. My husband, 2 sons and I are very grounded healthy good people - living in a world where most Humans are crazy, dangerous, selfish, losers, helpless, angry .. and so on. My family is AWESOME and Healthy and we will NOT continue to be abused by your emotional emails. We don't know you and was glad you exposed SBA / Danielle Azure - but I don't care to know you on any other level and nor does my awesome family / husband.

Looks like I may -- too - need to contact the authorities if you threaten me again - as you did above.

My husband and I were surprised you included Sean and SBA in your original email last night. Is that a felony with your restraining order?

I did my best last night to lend you emotional support but it is clear that you are obsessed with Sean Stone. Yes, SBA is a Disgusting Satanic Cult of Whores and One Pimp, but Sean is a grown man and must take care of himself.

DO NOT REPLY OR WE WITH BE FORCED TO ALSO CONTACT THE FBI,

Dear Patti,

I know that Danielle/Kaya/SBA's language is upsetting. I understand when people feel threatened that they often will try to recruit whomever they think will best have their back at such times even when they are clearly mistaken or in the wrong. And, I've just now described you and the cult which proves my point that Sean is in danger and that I'm not the threat but know when I'm threatened and how to spot threats even if it takes time to fully catch them in the act.

You included me after starting an exchange with SBA/Danielle/Kaya and the e-mail thread proves that. Liars self-negate. I'm consulting my attorney and we spoke by phone today. Who all ends up on what side in the end is anyone's guess. But, in order to lead by example in encouraging people who desire justice to pursue it or shut up, I must do something. And, I've tried to be reasonable and amicable the whole time under the circumstances.

I personally find it interesting that you revealed that SBA knew and so did Sean that you were supposedly harassing them since before Sean and I became acquainted. So, all the requests for help to identify who was hacking and harassing me, apparently they had a suspect the whole time and could've reasonably deduced by some of the content and statements that who was likely behind all of it. That's especially true if they know social media handles I don't. So, I'm going to try to leave Sean out of it, but, I'm not sure I can at this point.

All My Best,

Angela Smith

Ms. Smith,

You have now directly violated your restraining order multiple times and we are contacting the police for legal action/arrest as we speak.

Direct quote: "So, I'm going to try to leave Sean out of it, but, I'm not sure I can at this point."

Along with multiple emails to both Sean and Kaya.

We genuinely feel sorry for you. Are you that lonely that you have to harass and slander 2 people in a beautiful and loving relationship at deranged and demented ends? Do you really have nothing better to do with your time? We know you sit alone day in and day out in your trailer with nothing else to do than harass people living full and empowered lives which trigger you. We truly feel for you. We know you never processed the painful experience of your early youth, attempted murder and suicide, and are instead projecting these traumatized wounds on anyone which triggers your initial imprint, i.e any spiritual or religious organization you can get your "hands" on.

It is extremely narcissistic to actually believe anyone knows who you are other than as someone who has been harassing us at lengths. The Stone family has no idea who you are, what is this manic obsession you have with them and my boyfriend Sean? In simple language, it's creepy dear. I think if you were to get the mental help you need and start to attain actual friendships then you wouldn't have to concoct "A Beautiful Mind"-like scenarios in your mind and play them out through the internet.

Let's be real and honest, at least 10 people ran out of the courtroom where you were served with our restraining order with wide eyes, shouting "she's crazy." Direct quotes. Is this the life you want to lead? The judge and your local police department were also concerned for your mental illness and even the deputy forwarded your case to the psych ward. Hopefully these provide neutral confirmation for you that you are not ok! Also, wow what lies you tell! Sadro is the one who told us to file the restraining order against you. He also said the whole department was concerned for your mental state and that you would never directly answer his questions. This is what mentally unwell or even sociopathic people do, they flip reality and avert truth. To compare a healing arts school (no different that yoga or meditation) to a dictator is also evidence of a sociopath mindset. Ms. Smith, you seriously need to get help.

Can you really call this a life? Stalking/harassing people out of a trailer all day, every day? It's the holidays and approaching near year, so why don't you get yourself the psychiatric care you are surely yearning for on the deepest levels and begin to live a fuller, vibrant, happier life like Sean and Kaya do. They have no space for parasites in their world. Please get the help you need, for everyone's sake!

Happy Holidays,
SBA

So, personally and professionally I recognize Sacred Breath Academy as a scam and cult. The reasons are many and available at <https://www.heal-online.org/breathless.htm> with sources cited. And, I'm done being a scapegoat/victim because people consider me a safe place to let loose their frustrations. That's true in terms of my not doing anything illegal.
